Re: High Gables Homeowners Association, Inc. v. Larry C. Oldham,
Civil Action File No. 05-CV-2005, Superior Court of Forsyth
County, Georgia

Dear Mr. Pontrelli:

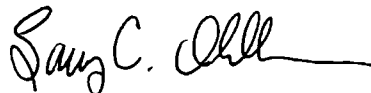

I left you a message earlier today and have not heard back from you. I hope to talk to you soon.

When I was riding by Mark Joiner's home this past Sunday, I saw him outside and took the opportunity to talk to him about why no one seems to be interested in sitting down to discuss this matter with me. As you know, you and I have never talked about this matter and I have been troubled by the fact that it has escalated to this point without any meeting between the parties.

In my discussion with Mr. Joiner, I reiterated my willingness to meet with all of the Board members and you as a group to discuss a way to resolve this matter. Mr. Joiner and I brainstormed about possible ways to end this litigation, and he certainly seems reasonable to me. Mr. Joiner told me that he believes all of the other Board members are reasonable people. Why not have a single sit-down session with all the decision-makers and their advisors involved? What can it possibly hurt? It certainly makes sense to put this matter behind us.

I am still hopeful we can find some common ground.

Very truly yours,

Larry C. Oldham
